

OBITUARY

MARTIN HARMAN JONES

We are sad to record the death of Martin Harman Jones in February of 2002. Martin was the grandson of Martin Coles Harman, and as a child spent many summers in Millcombe with his parents, sister, aunts, uncles and cousins.

His ashes have been committed to the Beacon Hill cemetery and marked with a granite memorial tablet, when many family and friends were present. The members of the Society send sincere condolences to all his family.
